with the D.G.C.A. and charge something else. What they are doing is that they are filing with the D.G.C.A. that they would charge a particular fare, but they are selling the ticket at a different price. What the D.G.C.A. is saying is that if an airline wants to charge a particular amount, they should file with the D.G.C.A. that they are charging that particular amount. This is the ony thing.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: Now, the question is:

> "That the Bill to provide for the constitution of the Airports Authority of India and for the transfer and vesting of the undertakings of the International Airports Authority of India and the National Airports Authority to and in the Airports Authority of India as constituted for the better administration and cohesive management of airports and civil enclaves whereat air transport services are operated or are intended to be operated and of all aeronautical communication stations and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto, as passed by the Lok Sabha, be taken into consideration."
